I made these muffins for my children, and I had a blast because I got to eat them too! I've got to tell you I was hesitant to try to make these muffins gluten free, but I was pleasantly surprised at the results. The first batch didn't look like much and I knew it was going to take some time to get to the taste I wanted them to have. After a few tries, I think I've hit the right texture and taste! *I got this idea from Sloppy Jane's Recipe #16. I didn't follow the recipe exactly for the gluten-free flour blend. I simply just used gluten-free flour, and it still tasted the same as the regular muffins I would make. I cut the sugar in half, and had to add a bit more xanthan gum to keep them soft. I added pumpkin seeds to the batter, and they were so delicious, my children loved them! I baked them in two batches, and it's so much easier to just have the oven on warm instead of having to keep an eye on them
