What's New in the Dramatic Clouds Free Screensaver?

[ad name="Adsense160x600_R1"] Show your computer's worth by offering the latest models from around the world. The program also gives you the option to offer it to others through your website, social networks or directly. Basically, it offers virtual sales, which makes it a good complementary element to your website or online store. This is not meant to be a standard desktop screensaver. It gives the impression of being a fun application which offers more than the usual screensaver. Hence, it doesn't work on most operating systems, but is meant to be used on Windows and OS X. Once installed, you can pick the pictures you wish to include, with the idea to vary it from day to day and season to season. The images are mostly of nature. Moreover, you can even include your own images. Once the selection is done, you can decide the duration the pictures will take and whether or not you want the screensaver to automatically start, which ensures that it starts when the computer is idle. If you want the screensaver to start after a set amount of time, you have the option of allowing the program to automatically lock the computer after it automatically turns off. Since it also offers a slideshow effect, you can decide the speed of the transitions between the images. This way, it can take anywhere from a few seconds to a full minute or two, without having to manually adjust the time. Screenshots [ad name="Adsense160x600_R1"] Also included in the app is the option to share the screensaver through a custom URL. This feature lets you share your slideshow with anyone who has the URL, whether it be on your website, social networks or directly. You can then use the URL to make a sale. All you have to do is select the screen size of your computer and the number of computers you wish to offer the product to. Then, select the payment method you want to use, and wait for the clients to connect. It's at this point where you can add a product description and prices. To ensure you reach as many customers as possible, the system will provide you with a list of the most relevant offers for your region. Once the selection is done, you can choose whether or not to send a message, and the message will automatically go to the client's email address. Also, you can select the region in which your product is available. Of course, you can choose the shipping methods which are available, and the price. The final step is to go through a process to select the images, which can take anywhere from 10 to 30 minutes, depending on the number of images you have in your slideshow. Once everything is done, the system will send an order confirmation for you to check and
