Download Mirror: I am certain that I have received a correspondence, asking me to respond to the formal request of submission which I sent to you in July, 2011. I have no authority in the matter, simply because I have nothing to do with it. I do know that you are looking into what I have done on this matter in the hope of a resolution. I will not respond any further to any correspondence on the matter. I have no interest in it. I have not been in the habit of using my contacts online, and I have no idea what has happened to my address book. I am now searching for it. I would not know what address book it was in, if I happened to know. You will not find my here again. There is no reason to look for me. I am not in a position to respond to any request for any info or for any contact, and I am not interested in doing so. There are no current projects for me, or for any of the people I have contacted, or that the people who I have contacted have contacted. In the meantime, I am looking for the real person that did this, and will be investigating the matter. I will be communicating with you from now on, only via email. Ed Rettig wrote: First of all, before we make any decisions as to what will be discussed. I would like you to know that this is a threatening letter. I do not feel that it is a discussion point that is pleasant to discuss. There is nothing I can do to change your mind on the matter, because I would not know what to tell you to do. The person who you are trying to find is Jason French. I would suggest contacting him through an alternative means. There are ways to do it, and I will not give you any information about any of them. You would be well advised to look into this on your own. I hope that you get the information you need about me, and about this matter. There is no reason for you to communicate with me any further. I have no further contact. I hope that you find the
