Robert Hall (cricketer, born 1833) Robert Edward Hall (born 14 October 1833 at Peckham, Surrey; died 16 August 1900 at Great Marlow, Buckinghamshire) was an English first-class cricketer who was active from 1850 to 1879. He was a member of the Hall family. He is recorded in a game in which William Hillyer was fielded, but which was not accounted for in the scorecard. Hall was mainly associated with Surrey and was a part-time cricketer. In 1880, he scored one of the highest individual scores made by an amateur batsman in first-class cricket; he made 198, the highest individual innings, in a game for Surrey against Essex at Leyton. Hall stood as an umpire in three first-class matches. In the 1874 game between Surrey and Lancashire, he was the third umpire in what was to be his last first-class match. He made his last first-class appearance as an umpire in the 1876 match between Lancashire and Surrey, which he was also to be the third umpire in.
