images ## Photo-Editing with Adobe Photoshop Elements The free version of Photoshop from Adobe gives you a good deal of editing power. Elements does not have all the tools found in the full version of Photoshop, but you do get a generous number of basic tools to help you enhance and correct images. Like Adobe Photoshop, Elements lets you crop images, align and distort them, and correct for red-eye, color problems, and other common photographic artifacts. You can even use Elements to straighten an image, to import and then use images from the camera, or to create your own digital masterpieces. To edit a photo, you need a full version of Photoshop (the standard Photoshop package) or use a lighter, simpler version like Elements.

Because of its simplicity and efficiency, it can be easily used to make photography and graphic art at any skill level. It is also a great choice for new users, as it is easy to learn and operate. Elements does not require any prior knowledge and does not require users to learn a complex graphics or design process. Elements comes in various versions: Adobe Photoshop Elements 2019 for Windows

Q: SVG: LineDash vs. PathDash
What is the difference between a LineDash and a PathDash in an SVG circle or ellipse? I know that both line and curve can be drawn with these two attributes. But is there any difference in drawing a circle or ellipse with each? For example VS A: The only difference between the two is that PathDash will make sure to draw the path as a closed shape. The only advantages you get from PathDash is that you can define your own parameters for  $d$  and that your path will look more smooth. Directions Place the olive oil, 2 Tbsp. of the vegetable oil, 1/2 tsp. of the salt, the coriander and cumin seeds in a small skillet and set over medium-high heat. Sauté for 30 seconds to 1 minute, until aromatic. Set aside. Step 3 Heat a large nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. Sprinkle the remaining 1 tsp. salt on the inside of the grill rack and season the steaks on both sides with the oregano, 1/2 tsp. of the salt, the rosemary, the remaining vegetable oil and pepper. Add the steaks, fat side down, and cook for 3 to 5 minutes, until the internal temperature of the steaks reaches an internal temperature of 135°F for medium-rare. Turn and cook until the internal temperature reaches 145°F for medium, about 5 minutes. Transfer to a platter. Step 4 Meanwhile, drain the potatoes and set them over high heat in a large, deep skillet with a lid for 10 minutes, or until just warm. Step 5 In the same skillet, whisk together the eggs and milk. Reduce the heat to low, then top the potatoes with the egg mixture. Season with the remaining 1/2 tsp. salt and the cayenne. Cover and cook for 10 minutes, or until the top has set. Sprinkle the feta over the egg mixture, cover and cook for 5 minutes more. Step 6 To serve, slice the steak into 1/2-inch-thick slices. Heat the bread over medium heat for 1

What's New in the?

Posted: Thursday, August 16, 2007 By KEITH ROSE AP Business Writer SAN FRANCISCO — The head of the nation's largest publicly traded nursing home chain was arrested Wednesday on charges he bilked the elderly and exploited a disabled former employee in a $2.7 million fraud. Gerri Detweiler's arrest capped a daylong FBI investigation into a purported scheme in which the former executive's company skimmed off some $2.7 million in profits from the employees and residents she oversaw as the chief operating officer of the California-based health care provider, Canyon Lakes Health Care, the Federal Bureau of Investigation said in a news release. Detweiler, a former substitute teacher and grade school principal who lives in Redwood City, was charged with one felony count of grand theft involving embezzlement, the release said. She was being held in the San Mateo County Jail, where she had not posted $20,000 bail, authorities said. She declined to comment on the allegations, according to a spokesman for U.S. District Judge Jacqueline Scott Corley. "My client vehemently denies these allegations. The charges against her are without merit and she looks forward to a speedy and just determination of this case," said the spokesman, David Bodenheimer. The FBI said that Detweiler, 61, was a co-defendant in a March 2006 subpoena order, which required that she produce the books and records of Canyon Lakes, an operator of 82 nursing homes in California, Arizona, Nevada and Texas. Instead of complying, she allegedly created a false document for Canyon Lakes and changed the ownership documents to "cover-up her embezzlement scheme," the FBI said. Officials said Detweiler allegedly forged the documents to show that Canyon Lakes had sold the nursing homes to a Florida company called Resthaven, Inc., for $2.7 million.

The alleged fraud began in 2004, and extended through early 2006, the FBI said. The FBI began the investigation after receiving a tip about Detweiler's actions in February 2006. Kirkland, Wash.-based Canyon Lakes is the nation's largest operator of skilled nursing and long-term care facilities, with 1,940 beds. Earlier this year, Canyon Lakes became the second-largest operator to face public allegations of financial

---

mismanagement, after the Illinois-based nursing care company Paradise Healthcare Services Inc.
