A Like many other tasks, creating professional looking CD and DVD covers is a lot more than simply using a template and adding your text. Click'n Design 3D is a nice software solution that could come in very handy for those who want to personalize CDs and DVDs by adding custom labels and covers. The application is compatible with multiple formats and is pretty easy to use because it all comes down to a few clicks. The first thing you have to do is pick the format you wish to design. Then, it's only a matter of adding graphic elements such as images, 3D text, 3D pictures, shapes and many more. Of course, since it's supposed to help you create professional looking labels, Click'n Design 3D also comes with a set of templates that will let you edit their content for a better looking result. With this tool you can even add effects to the images you use for the covers and labels. Probably the most interesting feature we discovered during our tests was the one concerning the content that's burned
