According to the Telegraph, Lashley went to the emergency room at a local hospital after he said he was feeling faint during his fight with Davis. While Lashley was being treated on the floor, Davis continued to beat him up in the cage. The Telegraph reports that the fight was stopped and that Davis was eventually taken down and given a match suspension for throwing head butts against Lashley, Lashley, 46, started his professional fighting career as a wrestler at the age of 20, going 13-0 as a professional in 1995. He made an unlikely move into mixed martial arts in the 2000's and won his first three fights. In the early days of the UFC, Lashley took on more recognizable names such as Tank Abbott and Keith Jardine and won them all by first round KO. Since entering the UFC, Lashley has been just about unstoppable, taking on such high profile fighters as Stipe Miocic, Alistair Overeem and Junior dos Santos. Lashley is scheduled to be in the middle of a trilogy fight with Dos Santos at UFC 200, which will take place on July 9, 2016, in Las Vegas, Nevada. For more information on Lashley
