what it seems as each adventure reveals a deeper and more sinister conspiracy. ive seen the episode where he has to stop an angry african mob, and a black bond would look terribly out of place. its not that he doesnt look the part, but theres so much about the character to play up that this would be a failure. a black bond would really only work if they make a black james bond. but there should be no black james bond, because that would be a failure of the character. if it were a black bond, its because the character was created to be black, and there would be no point in the character if he wasnt black. and if youre going to do that, the character should be female. in fact, it would be a comedy to make the black bond female. 5ec8ef588b
